THE STEPPES bear some similarity to Pop Art. Both groups are led by brothers, and both bands employ '60s-flavored folk-rock strains. But compared to Pop Art's straightforward, gentle simplicity, the Steppes mini-LP (Mystic Records) has more ambitious concerns. There's a level of genuine anger in "Nobody's Fault" and the mini-epic "No Names Yet for Henry," a bitter indictment of social hypocrisy that builds momentum with layers of fuzz-tone guitars buzzing like angry mosquitoes.

CALENDAR/LOS ANGELES TIMES

ILL REPUTE (What Happens Next? mini LP, Live super seven) played Santa Cruz with SCARED STRAIGHT & the FLOWER LEPERDS, they also did a 1/2 hour live interview on Santa Barbara radio KCSB.

The Mentors: Sleaze Kings of Rock 'n' Roll

In their shameful six-year career they've recorded (for Mystic Records) only one four-song EP simply titled Mentors and one LP, Mentors: Live at the Whiskey a Go-Go. Because their songs are so revolting the main outlet for the group's ultrachauvinistic, violent, sexually humiliating brand of heavy-metal rock is live performances. (They do have two difficult-to-find and difficult-to-stomach music videos: Get Up and Die, an attack on hated new wavers; and The Fuck Movie, which portrays a couple of the band's favorite themes—dismemberment and sadomasochism.)

(A typical lyric goes: My woman from Sodom/She likes me to poke her in the bottom/My woman from Sodom/She's got a lot of class/She likes to take it up the ass.)

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

... from the Fullerton area, have been playing much lately, and will soon take the crown away from SOCIAL D for the kings of Fullerton.

AGRESSION is planning to release their second record on Mystic. Also on Mystic this month, the release of RKL's first effort on vinyl, and ILL REPUTE's live 7"...Boy oh boy, I'm sure everybody can't wait for this one. P.S. Serena Dank is still ugly.

Plus ILL REPUTE played a show in Santa Cruz on the 18th. AGRESSION is still back together and playing many, many shows. They recently played in Vegas with Habeas Corpus, Scared Straight and A.W.O.L. and on the 19th they played the Casa in S.B. with Broken Bones from England. AGRESSION's album is 3/4 done and should be ready by the end of Feb.

R.K.L. are rumored to be back in Santa Barbara and they also played the Broken Bones show and they have their 7 inch single out. Also with their 7 inch single or E.P. is FALSE CONFESSION. THE ROTTERS have played some shows recently, the most recent being in Goleta at the Grass Shack.

SECOND THOUGHTS have been practicing and are strong and ready to play some shows.

Ill Repute, Don't No at Knights of Pythias - I missed the first couple bands, whoever they were, but the Pastrani sandwich was good. Don't No were back real soon after only a couple months, but they can move here for all I care. Terrific thrash with 2 guitar assault and hot leads. Warren leaps about while playing, and the drummer knocked over his set again. Ill Repute when on next and delivered a tight quick set with a lot of energy and a "un attitude."

'84 Tour DR. KNOW

Guillotine-New York City

CBGB's

Dr. Know is an interesting and versatile three piece band (note- although, on their album they are listed as a four piece) with their singer doubling as their guitar player. Their sound blends hardcore and heavy metal to perfection. Unlike a number of three piece bands, they are also very mobile. I noted that the guitar player used a number of effects including a Sunn Channel Accelerator which consisted of 5 different channels including reverb. Their songs were characterized by long instrumental and some very good guitar leads. A number of their songs are preoccupied with religion (although I have been told they are done tongue-in-cheek, so to speak). "God said go to New York. God told me to....I saw the Empire State Building today, but there weren't no big gorilla." -- this last was uttered in a countrified, hick type of accent. This was uttered prior to going into God Told Me To. Other songs from their set included: Citizens Of The World, Mr. Freeze, What To Do, God Bless America, Life Returns, Crucified, Stop The Machine along with a number of others.

There was a pause before going into Crucified while the singer took a "beer break". Their songs were powerful, driving and tight with the rhythm section hammering away as their guitar player belted out the tunes while making some of the most maniacal faces I have ever had the pleasure of encountering. They concluded with a two song encore, followed by their guitar player staying on a single note while tuning the guitar peg and finishing up with feedback. This was a very refreshing New York debut from Dr. Know.

ILL REPUTE

MAXIMUM ROCKNROLL

by Vada
Jim Callahan, bass/ Carl Valdes, drums/
John Phanauz, vocals/ Tony Cortez, guitar

MRR: Your show tonight was hot. Is this the first time you've played in your home town of Oxnard for a while?

IR: Thanks. Yes, the first time in about a year. It was great! Oxnard has a good scene, but never anywhere to play. The kids really made up for lost time tonight. It was crazy, and we had a blast!

MRR: Are your crowd responses this good on tour?

IR: Pretty much. People are starting to know our songs. Out-of-state shows are really fun because they don't get to see lots of shows, like in L.A.

MRR: How are your records doing?

IR: Great! Mystic Records is doing a good job keeping the records in stores and constantly advertising. They really treat us good. Doug Moody's not ripping anyone off. He's helped to build many bands like us. We plan on sticking with Mystic to return the favor.

MRR: Are all your releases on Mystic?

IR: The first recording we did was on Posh Boy for R.O.T.R. Vol 3, the song "Clean Cut American Kid". Then we hooked up with Mystic and put out our debut EP, Oxnard- Land of No Toilets. Since then, we have recorded for numerous comps, and released our 12" EP What Happens Next, all on Mystic. We also have a live 7" EP on the way, and are preparing for our new LP entitled Postive Charged.

MRR: That's a cool title. What can we expect?

1 Solution

the Sound of Hollywood series by the band. The song on this LP deal with the lyrics are fairly good with standouts by FLAG, AMERICA'S HARDCORE, and the GRIM. Bands are whining about how the police are all assholes who are manipulating to extents. All except for WHITE FLAG, song that is well thought out and well they are people too and how they are a. Bravo! 6277 Selma/Hollywood/CA/USA

Coming soon...Copulation 2 LP!

Police Line Do Not Cross!

Suburban voice

Refuge/Who's The Fool (Mystic Records)

s sound English (I think they are). Not vocals, but the style of the music is and a bit more melodic. Jodie is amusing ng in love with Jodie Foster. Darling ry much like the old Bad Religion.

is considerably slower paced, but some aks thrown in to avoid monotony. Legal pretty fast song along with Stance. Th etty good record. I like it a lot and it t from most of the new stuff.

straight ahead thrash goes, this is an onal comp! Great bands like Dr. Know & ion who add a metal element to their Ill Repute + great stuff from lesser bands. An intro to Thrash 101!

IR: The lyrics are "Get off your ass, think positive, pro-unity, anti-violence, and have fun" kind of stuff. We think a positive mental attitude is the best thing someone can have going for 'em! Music-wise, we're trying to add power without losing the speed. It will not be heavy metal though.

MRR: What is important to you?

JOHN: The band, and my health. I don't smoke or drink or do drugs because I've seen them ruin people. I've seen people my age who are so "old". I don't want to feel old till I am old.

TONY: Like John said, health. I don't smoke or do drugs, but I do enjoy drinking. I have just recently become a vegetarian, about 3 months ago. But it has nothing to do with punk. I did it for myself and won't use the band to advocate it.

Speaking of sleaze, Doggie Style have just finished recording their single for Mystic. The band performed the song, entitled "Do It Doggie Style," in the buff. They've also been horrifying manies by appearing on stage wearing nudie-but their instruments shades of Chili Peppers! Recent shows with Aggression and ... wanted to see more of this band than anyone

Mystic Super Sevens

Ill Repute-Live at Mystic

Another Super 7" from Mystic. Recorded live at a Halloween party at the Mystic studios, it turned out so well that they decided to release it. Side 1 features John, Tony, Jim, & Carl. Side 2 starts with some new tunz (Stop and Think & Sleep-walking 142), and Side 2 starts with Fuck Happens Next LP. Side 2 starts with Fuck With My Head, a real short one-along (HA HA) and then degenerates into covers of Cherry & Monster Mash (I've never heard it done this way before). The sounds a little bit rough, but hey it sounds good to me!!!! (Mystic Rec. -6277 Selma Av., Hollywood, CA 90028)

PARTY ANIMAL COMPILATION LP

Part 2 of the We Got Power Series, every bit as good as the 1st! Once again Mystic has covered the U.S. in search of new bands, 41 made this LP. Best cuts are: Ill Repute, Stukas Over Bedrock, Scared Straight, Micronots, Hated Principles, Sacred Cows, Shemps, & SWA. If you can afford to buy just One LP this year, get this 1!

ARCHIE TYPE-O-RAMA

DON'T NO-7 song EP (Mystic) Well, no doubt about it, this is hardcore. If you like 3 chord soeced, this is for you. Put it on, crank it up and annoy you neighbors!

Mystic Metalcore

MANIFEST DESTINY- 4 song EP (Mystic Records) A definite metal influence and a pure death rock sound- this is a great record!!

Strength Thru Plaid

FLOWER LEPERDS- 4 song EP (Mystic Records) Seems like the new generation of L.A. punk bands are incorporating more of a HM influence and such is the case with the Flower Leperds.

FALSE CONFESSIONS-6 song EP (Mystic) Dammit! No lyric sheet!! Oh well... Absolutely out-standing drumming on this, I'd pay just to see him play. Appealing throat/vocal/mouthist, good guitar work with metal touches. In brief, a tight hardcore group complemented by some fine production. I'm still mad I don't have a lyric sheet...

RAL- "It's a beautiful Feeling"- 7 song EP (Mystic Records)- Basically fast thrash with a few slow metal-ish parts. Although these guys can really play their instruments well
